This collection of poems is a heartfelt tribute to the extraordinary women who have graced my life as mothers. Through words woven with love, gratitude, and admiration, I seek to capture the essence of their unwavering love and unwavering support.

My Mother

My mother, the first in my line,

A love that's pure, unwavering, and divine.

From childhood's dawn to adulthood's grace,

Her love has been a constant, a steady embrace.

Her gentle touch, a soothing balm,

Her words, a compass, guiding me from harm.

Through laughter and tears, she's stood by my side,

A pillar of strength, an unwavering guide.

A Mother's Gift

Beyond the gift of life, you gave me so much more,

A wealth of lessons that my soul will forever adore.

You taught me compassion, kindness, and grace,

To love unconditionally, to embrace every face.

You instilled in me the power of belief,

That I can achieve anything, if I put my heart on my sleeve.

Your love has been a constant source of inspiration,

A driving force, a lifelong aspiration.

The Mother I Have Become

As I embark on my own journey as a mother,

I now understand the depth of love like no other.

In my children's eyes, I see a reflection,

Of the love and care I received, a precious connection.

I strive to emulate your grace and wisdom,

To nurture and guide them, to shelter them from harm.

May they know the love you've shown me,

A legacy that will live on, in perpetuity.

A Lifetime of Gratitude

No words can fully express the gratitude I feel,

For the gift of motherhood, for the love that's so real.

Through every stage of life, you've been my guiding light,

My constant companion, my unwavering support.

May these poems serve as a testament to my love,

A tribute to the mothers who have lifted me above.

With every line, I thank you from the bottom of my heart,

For the immeasurable love, for the unwavering start.
