But all of that is about to change when a group of adventurers stumbles into Duncan's dungeon. The adventurers are on a quest to find the fabled Christmas Core, a magical artifact that is said to grant wishes. Duncan is initially hesitant to help the adventurers, but he eventually agrees when they promise to help him find his Christmas spirit.

As Duncan and the adventurers journey through the dungeon, they face many challenges and dangers. But through it all, they learn the importance of friendship, teamwork, and giving. And in the end, they discover that the true meaning of Christmas is not about getting what you want, but about giving to others.
