Excerpt

"I'm sorry," Anna said. "I didn't mean to interrupt."

"No, it's okay," Ethan said. "I was just finishing up."

Anna looked around the coffee shop. It was a small, cozy place with mismatched furniture and a warm, inviting atmosphere.

"Can I get you anything?" Ethan asked.

"No, I'm good, thanks," Anna said. "I just needed a place to sit down for a minute."

"Okay," Ethan said. "Well, if you need anything, just let me know."

Anna nodded and sat down at a table in the corner. She took out her phone and started scrolling through her social media feeds. But she couldn't concentrate. Her mind kept wandering back to the conversation she had just had with Ethan.

He was so kind and understanding. And he had such beautiful eyes.

Anna looked up and saw Ethan watching her. He smiled and she smiled back.

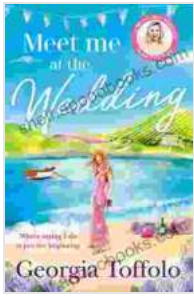

Maybe this was her chance to start over.
