

Six Deadly Guns: The Gunsmith #475 - A Riveting Western Adventure for the Ages

In the rugged and untamed American frontier of the 1800s, where lawlessness reigned supreme, one man stood as a beacon of justice and unwavering resolve: Clint Adams, the legendary Gunsmith. His reputation as a skilled craftsman and deadly sharpshooter had spread far and wide, earning him both respect and fear from those who crossed his path.

In "Six Deadly Guns," the 475th installment in the beloved Gunsmith series, Clint Adams finds himself embroiled in a dangerous game of cat and mouse with a ruthless gang led by the notorious Butch Cassidy. Determined to rob a stagecoach carrying a fortune in gold, Cassidy and his outlaws set their sights on Clint as the only man capable of thwarting their plans.

As the stagecoach hurtles through the desolate landscape, Clint realizes that he is not the only one seeking to protect the precious cargo. A motley crew of individuals, each with their own motivations, have converged on the same path:
