In the remote woods of Northern Michigan, there lies an abandoned asylum with a dark and sinister past. Locals whisper tales of ghostly apparitions and unexplained events that have occurred within its crumbling walls.

A group of friends, fueled by youthful bravado and a desire for adventure, decide to spend the night in the asylum on a dare. Little do they know that their decision will lead them down a path of terror and the unknown.

As darkness descends upon the asylum, the friends begin to experience strange and unsettling occurrences. They hear disembodied whispers, witness flickering lights, and feel an unseen presence lurking in the shadows.

As the night progresses, the friends realize that they are not alone in the asylum. Something sinister is lurking within the walls, watching their every move and toying with their sanity.

One by one, the friends begin to disappear, leaving behind only their screams and the chilling echo of their terror.

Can the remaining friends escape the clutches of the asylum and its malevolent spirits before they become the next victims? Or will they forever be trapped within its haunted halls, destined to join the ranks of the unseen?
