

The Twelve Jays of Christmas: A Magical Holiday Adventure for the Whole Family

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the house, Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.

But on the windowsill, in the pale moonlight, There sat twelve little jays, all dressed in white.

One by one, they flew down from the tree, Each one bearing a gift for the family.

The first little jay brought a golden ring, The second a turtle dove, the third a French hen.

The fourth brought a calling bird, the fifth a lark, The sixth a swimming swan, the seventh a milking maid.

The eighth brought a milking maid, the ninth a lady dancing, The tenth a lord a-leaping, the eleventh a piper piping.

The twelfth and final jay brought a drummer drumming, And all twelve sang a merry Christmas song.

The children awoke to the sound of the birds, And their eyes lit up with joy at the sight of the gifts.

They played with the toys all Christmas day, And the memory of the twelve jays stayed with them always.
