As the camp prepares for their annual festival, Marigold's life takes an unexpected turn when she encounters Lord Richard, a wealthy nobleman from the outside world. Drawn to her ethereal beauty and enigmatic nature, Richard finds himself torn between his duty and his growing affection for Marigold.

But their forbidden love is not without its perils. The Gypsy Witch, a powerful seer and guardian of the camp, senses a dark threat approaching. Ancient prophecies foretell of a sinister force that threatens to destroy the Gypsy way of life.

As the festival unfolds, Marigold finds herself caught between two worlds. She must confront her destiny and navigate the treacherous path between her Gypsy heritage and her love for Richard. With the help of her loyal grandmother and the enigmatic Gypsy Witch, Marigold embarks on a perilous journey to unravel the secrets of her past and secure the future of her people.
